Asha is just a regular woman with many talents. Whether it be in the bedroom or on the dance stage, she was guaranteed to make it worth your while. She finally comes to the realization that a relationship is what she wants most, but as she learned from a young age, everyone doesn't deserve her love or trust. Coco is too busy raising her little sister and focusing on her career to enjoy the fruits of her labor. Her friends try to get her to enjoy life more, but she's carrying a secret that leaves her guarded...until "HE" bumps into her. Enter Damien Dynasty, he's everything she needs to stay away from, but shouldn't. Imani lives to be a spoiled rich princess. She has no job, just her dead daddy's money. She expects every man in her life to take care of her, but will they? When her mom gives her an ultimatum she has no choice but to get herself together. Gia had a tough childhood and even tougher adulthood. From foster homes to bandages and rubbing alcohol she definitely knows the struggle of life. Gia just wanted to be loved by the wrong man for the right reasons. Love is definitely blind in this case. Come along and follow these four friends as they deal with family secrets, love, and tragedy. The Pain of Love never felt so good
