Journey to Penitence M. A. Newby

The patriarch of the Arthur family has been told that he's dying, and he's deeply in debt. He's found the answer: a lost herd of cattle in a hidden valley in 1870s west Texas. But he can't do it without the help of his own family, its members scattered all over Texas. Called together, their adventure begins. Gather a herd of wild cattle, get them to market in Ft. Worth, sell them and get the money back to west Texas before they are foreclosed on. All this in spite of a mortgage holder who wants the ranch, not the money, and doesn't care how he gets it. But one of the sons is a new Christian who has the Bible of the dead fellow soldier who taught him enough to know he was lost. The whole family wants salvation and must rely only on that Bible.
