Show Me The Money! Jim Bainbridge

Movie buff Jim Bainbridge has a great ear for good dialogue. Just as important, he has the wherewithal to take notes when movie characters deliver snappy comebacks, terse personal philosophies, wicked one-liners, over-the-top rants, romantic effusions and other scriptwriting gems. Bainbridge, who has been researching and collecting these bits of cinematic conversation most of his life, presents the best of them here, more than 600 quotes from almost 500 movies. "Show Me the Money" begins with Bainbridge's 10 favorite movie lines. The remaining quotes in this book are grouped into 18 categories- from Banter to Justice to Sports to War - with each entry listed alphabetically by movie title. These quotes are drawn from a stunning range of films, from early talkies such as the Marx Brothers' Animal Crackers, released in 1930, to contemporary flicks such as Shakespeare in Love, released in 1999. Devour these movie lines like popcorn, or savor them one by one. They're as irresistible and satisfying as your favorite film.
