A Trusting Heart (Truly Yours Digital Editions Book 286) Judith Mccoy Miller

Confronted with unforeseen challenges, Claire Winslow is forced to make all her decisions based on what will affect her multi-handi-capped daughter. Though widowed, lonely, and working full-time, Clair has decided marriage would only further complicate her situation. An unexpected introduction to Jake Lindsey, a sergeant in the United States Army, causes Claire to question her stand on marriage. He has brought a spark to her life, but she must let him go. Claire has more than herself to consider-her God, whom Jake does not serve, and her daughter, whom she can't trust Jake will love unconditionally. As she seeks God's will in determining her future, will Claire permit herself to once again explore the possibilities of love?
