A Heart's Refuge Carolyn Aarsen

Handsome but restless Rick Ethier had no use for the stuffy family business, but when his grandfather laid an interesting proposition at his door, he found it hard to say no. If Rich could bring a faltering magazine around to profitability within a year, he'd be free to pursue his true interests.

But Rick found an unexpected obstacle in Becky Ellison, the previous owner's daughter and the current editor of the magazine. Though she loved her job, she had yearned to write fiction-until a very negative review of her first published book-by Rick Ethier-had quashed that dream forever. Had God crossed their paths to give them both a new direction?
