Drunk, Blind, Stupid Cupid Sadie Sins

An angel, a demon and a love-wary teenager walk into a cemetery... Aiden Fisher hates Valentine's Day with a passion saved only for holidays and annoying public displays of affection. He's spent his teenage life trying to be as unapproachable as possible even if his cute face has heads turning. This Valentine's Day he finds he's failed his goal; a secret admirer wants to meet him. Aiden has a lot of reasons to avoid love at all costs, many he can't seem to remember when he's approached by two foreign, beautiful boys that say they're destined to meet. He tries to avoid the alarming feelings welling up, but when they're attacked and he brings his new friends home, there's nowhere to run. Trying to hide as much of his embarrassing home life as he can from these quirky winged boys, Aiden finds himself faced with a choice. Does he wants to suffer in love or suffer alone? Disclaimer: This slightly dark, sweet novella contains explicit m/m sexual content between multiple partners, graphic language, first time experiences, and hot winged boys and a pretty punked out bottom in a committed threesome relationship. Made specifically for Valentine's Day, beware of sappiness, sarcasm, angst, and plot. All sexually active characters are 18+. www.sadiesinsbooks.com
