Soul's Journey Joanne Johnson

With her 30th birthday only weeks away Jordan takes a hard look at her “comfortable” life. Once the doormat to a myriad of users and manipulators, she enters into a spiritual contract to move forward and not look back. Ridding herself once and for all of the individuals that had done nothing more than use and abuse her. Charting a new course of independence proves to be the greatest challenge of her life, and unwittingly awakens in her, magical skills and talents dormant for several generations. Could this be the liberation of her soul or her undoing? Jordan determines to step out of the box that had confined her and embrace a new reality of living. She finds her summer vacation transforming into an adventure she will experience only once in her lifetime... her soul’s journey.
