Preteen Ministry: Between a Rock and a Hard Place Ed Robinson, Kathryn Lewis Mowry

The journey between childhood and adolescence presents a new set of perplexing dilemmas and some unanswered questions at each turn in the road. Very often it feels like being trapped between a rock and a hard place. Preteen Ministry is written to help parents, Sunday School teachers, youth pastors, children's workers, and other Christian educators as they walk with their preteens through the land in between. It will ask and answer questions like: 'What are the characteristics of a preteen?' 'What is being done with preteens in the schools?' 'How can we create relevant ministry for preteens?' 'How are parents impacted by the preteens' transition and how can they help them through it?' Paper.
