History of the Fourth Regiment of Minnesota Infantry Volunteers During the Great Rebellion, 1861-1865 (Classic Reprint) Alonzo Leighton Brown

The statements made in this history were nearly all compiled from official reports, or memoranda made by reliable persons of good judgment. I have no excuses to make for my style of writing or ability to present a myce erudite and felicitious production; have copied quite freely from the War of the Rebellion, official records, published by the United States Government, and in my reference to the same use figures v. 17, 2, 186, which, as here used, mean Volume 17, Part 2, page 186, and where such figures occur they refer to those volumes. Twish to acknowledge my thanks to the following named persons who placed their daily diaries, kept during their service, at my disposal: Comrade George E. Sly of Company A, whose record I found very accurate and reliable; also, Lieut. Thomas M. Young of the same company; Hon. Washington Muzzy of Company H; -C apt. I. IST. Morrill and Lieut. George Baird of Company K; A djts. Wm. T. Kittredge and W. W. Rich; Lieut. John G. Janicke of Company G; Capt. F. V. De Coster of Company D; Lieut. John H. Thurston of Company C, who aided in corrections to the roster and matters connected therewith; Col. R. S. Donaldson, for his aid and encouragement. A lonzo L. Beown. Brown-ton, Minn., June, (Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and don't occur in the book.)
